DOROTHY DAY HOSPITALITY TEAM; JANUARY 31st!

If the month has five Saturdays it's our turn to create the meals and serve the clients at the Dorothy Day Hospitality House in Danbury, Jim Gulalo (he's the one about to be topped by a spoon!) can tell us how many years we have been serving this community; at least 10. Hundreds of meals and packed lunches have been distributed also with the help of the Reed Interact Club.

PP LARRY GARDNER IS PRESENTER AT NEPETS!

Over the weekend March 11-13 Presidents Elect from the 8 New England Districts gathered in Nashua NH to be prepared for their coming year in the 'hot seat'. Our past President Larry was among the presenters conveying his experience to the newcomers. Our President Elect Carrie Swan was not able to attend due to a business conflict, but will do a make up in May!

MARCH STUDENTS OF THE MONTH

From St Rose, the High School; the Middle School and Reed School, Seen here with their teachers and Project Leader Tony Salvatore and Club President Bill Calderara. This is the picture that usually makes it to the Bee, but it does not tell the full story, of the depth of talent and dedication that these young people have and it's the reason why this Club is so proud to recognize these students.

Fifth Grader Lindsey Gallagher listens to her citation, read by her Assistant Principal at Reed School Dr. Tony Salvatore

Another full house of parents and friends attended this event to recognize these young students:

Quinn Karp a Sixth Grader also from Reed School listens to her Assistant Principal read her citation.

Austin Martinez was one of two Middle School representatives for March. He listens to his citation which related his fine achievements.

Middle School eighth grader Samuel Svensson, kept up the standard from his school, proudly listens to his citation.

Zoe Destories is Newtown High Schools Student of the month. Mrs. Kathy Erikson one of the High School's English teachers was delighted to read Zoe's citation.

St Rose teacher Mr. Joe DeMaida reads the citation for the sole representative from that school; Matthew Kendziorski.
